

Can-U-Read

Subject-Verb Agreement

The smallest sentences has a subject and a verb.

The subject and the verb has to match.

If you uses the wrong verb it do not sound right.

You has to fix it, so I cans hears you better.

The smallest sentences have a subject and a verb.

The subject and the verb have to match.

If you uses the wrong verb it does not sound right.

You have to fix it, so I cans hears you better.

This is/are an aquarium.

Aquariums is/are like terrariums.

They can/cans hold plants and animals.

These creatures can't live/lives where we live/lives.

They needs/need a special habitat.

This is/are a real aquarium!

This kind of aquarium are/is not a small water habitat among people.

This is/are a small people habitat among fish!

People can visit/visits the habitat to see how the fish lives/live.

Not only can the people visits/visit fish, they can visit/visits different fish habitats.

There are/am reef and open ocean habitats.

There is/are shallow pond and deep ocean habitats.

People can make/makes these habitats for the fish so we can lives/live among them.

Sometimes people can play/plays with the creatures.

Scientists picks/pick animals which are/am safe.

They can let/lets children see/sees and touches/touch these safe animals.

This is/am a great way for us to see the creatures up close.

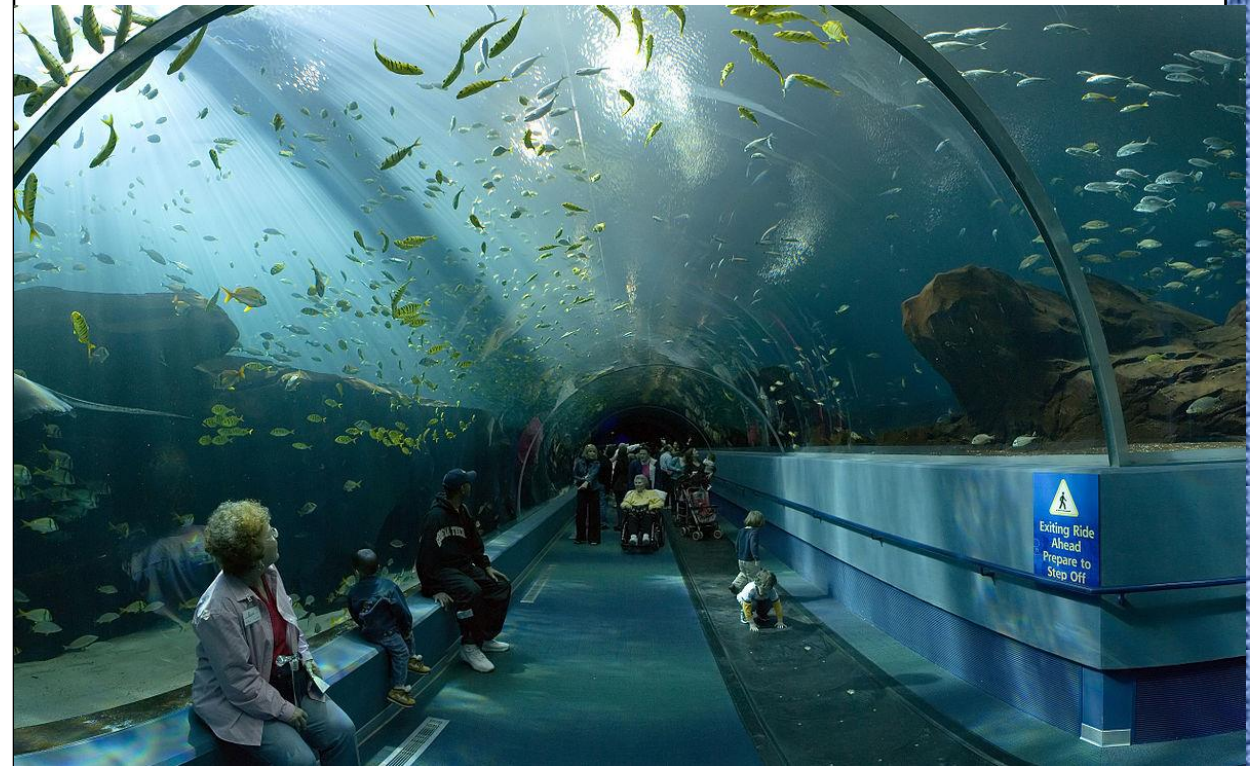

Tunnels is/are another great way to visit the fish world.

We can see/sees up through the glass and water.

The light from above show/shows us the fish.

People can enjoy/enjoys the view as long as they like.

A column is/are another great way to interact with the animals.

The column can gives/give little creatures plenty of space.

People can crowd/crowds all around.

The habitat can have/has a special temperature or more salt.

Some aquariums have/has a gallery.

Galleries are/is big spaces for lots of people.

The fish is/are all around them.

Big pools of water can holds/hold galleries.

These can be/is big habitats.

All of these habitats need/needs divers.

Divers cleans/clean the tanks.

They can also feeds/feed the animals.

Sometimes new animals need/needs help getting used to their home.

Sometimes fish even dies/die.

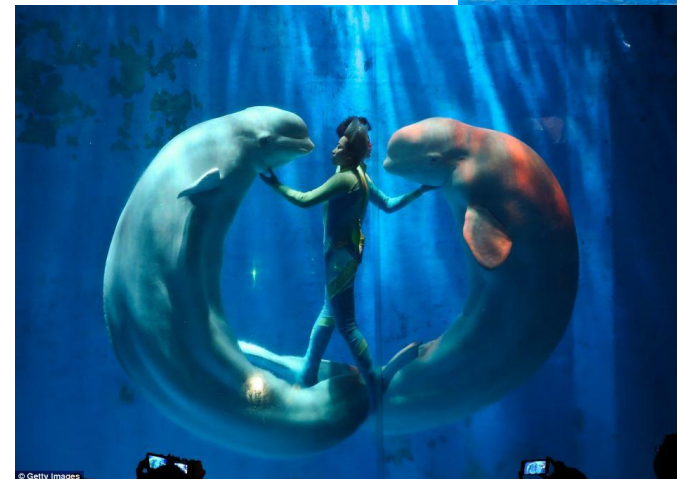

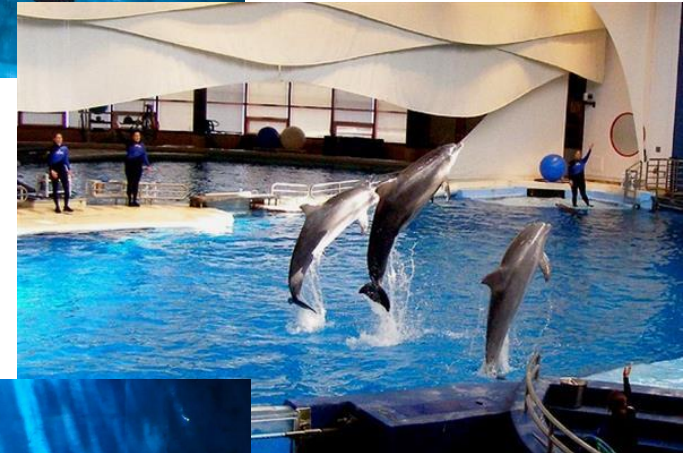

Marine mammals is/are smart enough to work with people.

Seals, dolphins, whales, and otters can helps/help the scientists.

People see/sees these animals and learns/learn about them.

Once people know/knowns about them, they want/wants to protect the animals.

Animals in the aquarium likes/like people.

They plays/play games and remember/remembers their friends.

Sometimes the scientists uses/use their skills as doctors.

They can rescues/rescue sick animals and help/helps them survive.

Many of these animals could not lives/live on their own.

Some people think/thinks these animals should not be in an aquarium.

Learning about the animals am/is no reason to keep them in jail.

They might tells/tell people to leave the aquarium.

If the aquarium can't sell/sells tickets, no more animals will be jailed.

THE END

